THIRD ANNUAL CONVENTION OF YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS-ADDRESS OF WEL-COME AND RESPONSE-VISITORS FROM NEW YORK-PERMANENT ORGANIZATION-STATIS-TICS OF THE ASSOCIATION-ASSIGNED TO PASTORAL DUTY-NORTH CAROLINA BONDS-LATE CUTTING AFFRAY-RELIGIOUS NOTES. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

JANUARY 12, 1877. The third annual Convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of Virginia met last night at 8 o'clock in the Tabb-Street Presbyterian church. Representatives from seven associations reported themselves. Colonel William P. Munford (president) presided. The meeting was rather a preliminary than a busines one, and the evening's proceedings were confined mainly to the appointment and reports of committees on credentials and business. By the latter committee the times of meetings of the convention were fixed, and the order of business for each day reported. A committee on permanent organization, consisting of one member from each Association represented, was also appointed (Rev. Dr. Read, of Richmond, chairman), with directions to report this morning. On behalf of the Petersburg Association, Rev. T. T. Eaton then delivered a brief address, cordially and warmly welcoming the members of the Convention to the city and to the homes and hearts of our people.

President Munford eloquently and feelingly responded, accepting the welcome in the spirit in which it was offered. He stated that the work of the Association in Virginia had been prosecuted under many and great difficulties, but had been blessed of God. her is looked upon as a prodigious one. Three years ago there were only three associations in the State; now there are twenty-

Mr. Hall conducted the religious services. The Convention was permanently organized by the election of Thomas D. Ramsom, of Staunton, president; Rev. W. J. Smith, of Salem, and A. L. Lumsden, of Petersburg, vice-presidents. Secretaries: T. C. Morton, of Staunton, and J. Gray McCandlish, of Petersburg.

Mr. Ransom, in a graceful speech, acknowledged the honor and confidence bestowed in his election.

Colonel Munford, as chairman, then read the annual report of the Executive Committee, which contains also the reports of the membership and the condition of the several associations of the State. After a general review of the progress of the Association work in Virginia during the year, which is reported as very gratifying, the following statistics of the membership of the different associations are given:

Alexandria, 102 members; Leesburg, 61; Salem, 76; Staunton, 200, and a library of 750 volumes; University of Virginia, 82, with a library of 300 volumes; Washington and Lee University, 35; Winchester, 130, with 2,000 volumes in their library; Roanoke College, 60; Richmond, 550, with a library of 5,000 volumes; Petersburg, 140 members. Reports from other associations not represented may probably be handed in to-night.

After discussion on several matters of mipected to open the discussion on the subject of the Associations' "Mission Primarily to Young Men." If this is concluded, Rev. Dr. J. William Jones will open the discussion on the "Relation of the Association to

CHRISTMAS-TREE FIRE IN FREDERICK- | HOME AND FOREIGN NEWS. THREE CHILDREN TERRIBLY BURNED. - Frederick, Md., January 11.—About 5:30 o'clock this evening a fire occurred at the residence of Mr. Charles W. Tabler, on east Patrick street, by which three children-a son and daughter of Mr. Tabler, grandchildren of Colonel Thomas Sinn, and a daughter of Mr. Joseph Tregelios-were terribly, and it is thought fatally, burned. The children, it appears, had locked themselves in a large room in which there was a beautiful Christmas-tree, for the purpose of engaging at play. In attempting to illuminate a miniature house by means of tapers fire was communicated to the tree and quickly spread through the room. The frightened children were unable to escape, and it was not until the flames were discovered outside that the doors were broken open and their rescue effected. Considerable excitement was produced and much sympathy is felt for the unfortunate parents and the little sufferers. The damage to property is slight. Specail dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.

XLIVTH CONGRESS—Second Session WASHINGTON, January 12, 1877.

Mr. Frelinghuysen presented a petition of persons representing the financial, commercial, manufacturing, and business interests of Newark, N. J., asking that in counting the electoral vote all party consideraions be laid aside, and pure, unselfish patriotism guide the action of Congress. The petition having been read, Mr. Frelinghuysen said he sympathized with the sentiments of the petitioners. He believed there was patriotism enough, and statesmanship enough in the representatives of the American people to reach a satisfactory conclusion in regard to the present embarrassment, and he hoped that patriotism and statesmanship would be exercised. If Congress would reach a satisfactory conclusion of the comolication the effect would prove a boon to his nation worthy of the memorial here. The petition was referred to the specia committee of seven senators appointed to consider the presidential difficulties. The bill for the correction and revision of the laws was passed.

Mr. Booth addressed the Senate in favor of his plan for counting the electoral votes, which submits the points upon which both houses are unable to agree to the Supreme Court. Adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The House had at its bar to-day E. W. Barnes, the recusant witness, and after listening to his answers that if he again assumed control of the New Orleans office, and if there were then any of the telegrams demanded of him, he would be willing to produce them, adopted a resolution declaring that the witness had not made sufficient answer, and remanding him to the custody of the sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Knott, of Kentucky, from the committee on determining the rights and privileges of the House in counting the electoral vote, submitted a report declaring that the president of the Senate has no right to determine what electoral votes shall be counted, and that the powers of the Senate and House are equal in respect to the counting of those votes. He gave notice that he would call it up for action on Wednesday

Mr. Fields, of New York, and Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, were appointed as additional
